Note: There are many other sites that are useful in various areas of the curriculum. Be sure to check Ascend regularly for teachers' homework updates. There, you will often find additional sites suggested / linked. Be sure to check on the E-Classroom link by the Teacher's name(s) to see any linked sites.

Homework Assigned for Grade Four

(Average time among all teachers, including Specials teachers)

Note: Please note, that students are given many opportunities during the school day to begin and often, complete their homework. Often, pages are sent home to simply be checked.

Religion: Tests are usually every other week. The activities, dittos, and Chapter Review are generally assigned in Class. Study time should be ~10 minutes/night 3-4 days before a test.

10 min. English: There are workbook pages followed by an (identical!) quiz for each section. There is often time to do this in Class, but may be finished and checked at home.

10 min. Reading: There are vocabulary definitions with each set of the chapters/stories. During the week they are given, students are asked to create sentences at home, usually once every other week, though sometimes more frequently. Tests are usually given every 4 chapters for novels or weekly in the Reading text.

There is a book jacket due once a month based on a book students have read. They have all month to do this, and may turn it in any time before the due date at the end of the month. There might be some time to work on it in Class, depending on the day. Students may work ahead to the next month, if they wish.

10 min. Spelling Connections: The workbook pages for each lesson are assigned on Mondays with the and are due on Fridays or Thursdays, if we are off that Friday.) Tests take place every Friday. 'On the 6th week of a Unit/section, there is a review lesson with no spelling test. Students should be studying the words for a few minutes every night on Spelling City or with flash cards).

Social Studies: There is generally no homework for this class. Students are expected to study note cards, their notebook, etc. on a regular basis to be ready for upcoming tests. Tests are usually every 2-3 weeks. Some projects will be assigned throughout the year. Review notes, re-read lessons/chapters, practice flash cards ~10 minutes/night 3-4 days before a test.

15 min. Math: There is an assignment from their EnVision math workbook each day, and each Monday several Simple Solutions practice pages are assigned which are due at the end of that week.

10-15 min. Science: There is one workbook page with each of the 3-5 lessons per Chapter. That translates to a page every 3rd day. This is generally done in class in collaboration with other students, and taken home to be checked. Tests are usually every 3-4 weeks. Some projects will be assigned throughout the year. Review notes, re-read lessons/chapters, practice flash cards ~10 minutes/night 3-4 days before a test.

5-10 min. French (1 or 2 days/week): There is generally a ditto assigned each week, which may be done at any time the student wishes, and often is completed during class or study hall. There are periodic tests.
