Wolff Bros. Supply, Inc. Celebrates 50 Years of Business & History

Wolff Bros. Supply, Inc. has grown significantly since its humble beginning, but it remains true that the heart of the company is family. Entering its third generation, Wolff employees and family members proudly celebrate Wolff Bros. Supply's 50th Anniversary and remember its unique history.

It all started in the 1950's when Harold and Norman Wolff needed to make a crucial decision – go broke saving the family farm or put their heads together and create a business their families could depend on. The Wolff brothers decided to go into the mechanical trades – Electrical, Plumbing, and Heating contracting business. Their new company, Wolff Bros. General Contractors, began and operated out of the back of an old truck.

Later, expanding into retail sales, they started using the family dairy barn and chicken coop for parts and supplies. The main floor of the barn housed the offices while the hay loft was filled with tubs and toilets. The old chicken coop became a warehouse for pipe and other plumbing and electrical supplies. By March 1965, the growing business was incorporated as Wolff Bros. Supply, Inc.

In 1972, when the second generation began graduating from college, Wolff Bros. Supply, Inc. entered into the wholesale business working to supply local building contractors' materials. After years of hard work, the company expanded in a major way and turned Harold and Norman's dream into reality. The old farmstead is still there today, but it is now accompanied by a warehouse, showroom, and offices that serve at the corporate headquarters. The

From the Executive Director

Members and Friends:

The Parade of Homes is on and will be for 2 more weekends. Be sure to take some time, go support your fellow builder members and see all of the houses. This is what our industry is all about and those builder members who are not in the Spring Parade, should try to plan on participating this fall. Those dates will be provided in the next month or two.

Something else to look forward to in this warmer weather we're experiencing is our annual golf outing. Included in this newsletter is a copy of the flyer with all the details for golfers and a form for participation. There is also a sponsorship page listing the marketing opportunities available. Make sure you mark your calendar for Thursday, June 18, at Shale Creek in Medina to attend. This is a great event for networking and just having a fun day! Watch your email for more information.

It's On!

The Medina County Parade of Homes started this past weekend and will run through the next two weekends. Here is our Parade article that was submitted to all the local media about the event!

What Are You Doing This Weekend? We've Got Just the Plan!

Now is the perfect time to get out, take a drive through scenic Medina County, and take in the Spring Parade of Homes. After the horrendous winter Northeast Ohio experienced this past season, the warm spring temperatures make touring Parade homes an inviting ticket to finding just what you want in a new home. Despite the challenging weather, our builders persevered and came together to offer 14 outstanding homes showcasing a wide variety of designs in several inviting neighborhoods throughout the county, and beyond. It's an ideal opportunity to compare communities, developments, builders, home features, and price points, and see the latest trends in new home design. Perhaps you're a recent empty nester and you're looking to downsize, or the family is growing and you need more space. Whatever your needs, you are certain to find the perfect landing spot in Medina County.

Historically, the housing industry has been an accurate barometer of the economy in general. We see home sales picking up, higher volumes of home sales in shorter time frames, more homes under construction, increased building permits, more construction activity, etc. – a lot of positive indicators that the economy is on an upward gallop.

Right now is a fiscally sound time to buy or build. With the recent boom in construction, material costs are expected to rise, so building now makes sense. Mortgage interest rates remain low making now an economically smart time to purchase. In fact, building a highly efficient home can save you thousands on energy costs over time. Even if you're not quite ready to buy a new home, it's an excellent chance to shop for potential ideas, neighborhoods and a future builder. Most of the builders will be on-hand to meet and answer any questions you might have.

The builders and homes you will see at this event include:
Artisan Building and Design (Spring Valley in Valley City);
Bridgeport Custom Homes & Design (Fox Meadow in Medina); Charis Homes (Kings Ridge in Uniontown);
Gatliff Custom Builders (Meadowview Estates in Medina);
Landmark Homes (Lookout Pointe, Blue Heron Estates in Medina – Cluster);
Legacy Homes of BriarThorn (BriarThorn in Wadsworth – Cluster);
Legacy Homes of Medina (The Grove of Weatherstone in Wadsworth and Estates of Rim Rock, Valley City); Mason Builders (Valley Estates in Valley City).

Straub Homes (scattered site in Seville);

Windridge Homes (four models – Country Lakes at Fox Meadow and Riverview Villas – both Clusters, Windsor Park II and Whitetail Crossing – both single family homes, all in Medina);

Four of the models presented are maintenance-free cluster homes and the balance, single family homes. There are new developments being showcased in this Parade offering potential buyers the opportunity to hand select their premium home site.

Without the assistance of financial supporters, it is difficult to have a successful Parade. The Medina County HBA is thrilled to have the participation of many reputable member businesses contributing to this event, both financially and through top quality products and services. This Parade is proudly sponsored by Carter Lumber, and supported by a variety of member partners including: 84 Lumber, All Construction Services, EZ Sales Team of Keller Williams GCW, First Federal Lakewood, MPW Construction Services, Paramount Plumbing Inc., Sundance LTD, Third Federal Savings & Loan, Westfield Bank, and Yorktowne Heating & A/C.

The Parade event starts Saturday, May 2nd and runs through Sunday, May 17th. Models are open weekends ONLY (Saturdays and Sundays) from 12:00 noon to 5 p.m. and are closed Monday thru Friday. As always, this event is free to the public and you can find all the details online at www.medinacountyparade.com. The entire event including map, builder information, home details, photos, and floor plans are available on the website, as well as Googlemap links to all home locations so bring your smart phones and GPS systems. For your convenience, printed maps are available at the Medina County Home Builders office located at 4081/4083 N. Jefferson St. in Medina one week prior to the event starting. You can also pick one up at any of the Parade models. Enjoy the show!

After returning from spring break, the House Finance Committee adopted substitute HB 64 on Tuesday with several drastic changes. Deleted are increases in sales, commercial activity, tobacco and oil and gas severance taxes. One of the few components of the governor's plan to survive is means-testing for income tax credits and deductions. Instead of a major overhaul to the tax code that continues a shift away from income to consumption-based taxes, the House plan would instead provide for $1.2 billion income tax cuts using in large part the projected growth in tax revenue to offset the expense. Those cuts include a 6.3% across-the-board reduction in rates, bringing the top rate below 5%. The new plan also makes permanent a 75% small business tax cut for the first $250,000 of income.

The House continued to hear testimony on the substitute bill this week with an omnibus amendment expected sometime next week and a vote by the full House later this month.

RCAC TO DISCUSS PETITION TO ADOPT NEW ELECTRIC CODE

At its meeting last month, the RCAC considered a petition submitted by NFPA and NEC with support from several other interested groups urging the RCAC to adopt the most recent version of the National Electric Code (2014 NEC/2014 NFPA 70). After some heated questioning and discussion on the submittal, the Chairman appointed a subcommittee to further review the 2014 NEC. There were several concerns raised with some of the new code provisions, including additional GFCI protected outlets, as well as, the cost data submitted with the petition. OHBA reminded the committee it is under no mandate to adopt a new code, and has the authority to change/amend as it see fit for Ohio. The Committee's agenda for its April 22nd meeting includes further discussion by the whole committee on the topic.

Please contact OHBA with any comments or concerns you may have on the NEC.

MAJOR EVENT SPONSORS

The Medina County Home Builders Association would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of our sponsors and supporters of the Spring Parade of Homes. Your response continues to be unprecedented and your participation will enable us to promote this event in a way we have only dreamed of over the past few years.

As I'm sure most of you are aware, there is a lot of activity in Medina County and your support will keep that momentum rolling.

Be sure to take time to visit each of the model homes being presented. The builders have made a huge commitment themselves to being in this Parade, even some of the homeowners have allowed their homes to be presented as well. The best way we can support them, aside from what all of you have already done, is to tour the homes, tell your friends and neighbors and show your support that way.

We would like to thank all of our Parade Builders as well for continuing to participate in this event that puts our association at the forefront of residential construction in Northeast Ohio. Participants for this event include: Artisan Building and Design, LLC, Bridgeport Custom Homes & Design, Charis Homes, Gatliff Custom Builders, Legacy Homes of Medina, Legacy Homes of BriarThorn, Mason Builders, Renovation Homes dba Landmark Homes, Straub Homes, Inc., and Windridge Homes.

ELECTRIC COALITION ASKS FOR MORE TIME TO RESPOND TO RCAC

At the RCAC meeting this month, the electrical coalition petitioning the RCAC to adopt the 2014 NEC, asked for the item to be tabled and further considered at next month's meeting to have more time to respond to some RCAC concerns. The coalition is made of up NFPA, NEMA and others. After the coalition's initial submittal, the RCAC raised some questions and concerns with costs and adoption of the code in its entirety. NEMA has taken an active role in getting the most recent NEC adopted in Ohio. The RCAC agreed to put the item on the agenda for more discussion at its May 27th meeting.
